

"Things On My Mind"

I've been takin' a beating from life lately maybe I deserve it
I make my share of mistakes and I'm far away from perfect
So maybe I got a karmic debt that I just haven't paid off yet
I know I got to pay my debts
I never meant to send so many rubber checks

I've been searchin' for somethin' but I don't know how to find it
I'm not sure what it is but I think I'm right behind it
It always seems just beyond my grasp
Sometimes I can't help but ask... why me?

I guess I'll know what it's all about
Just when I'm all the way down and out!

Sometimes you got to lose it all just to see what's left and sometimes you got to nearly die to see you're not dead yet
You might have to open your eyes just to see that you're blind
I don't know what all of this means just some things on my mind

I've been meaning to work on my procrastination
Soon as I get around to working on my lack of motivation
I know that there should be nothing to it
All I gotta do is get up and do it
With all my thoughts spinning round and round
There's no kind of progress to be found

I've been racking my brain lately tryin' to organize it
Seems to make it more complicated when I over-analyze it
I check the places that they tell you to look
Self-help and metaphysical books
I could read every book on the shelf
But the answer gonna come from within myself
